

Yesterday morning, on Good Friday, our prayer group—made up of legislative staff members and local pastors—gathered in heartfelt prayer and worship to honor the sacrifice of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, as we anticipated the joy of Easter Sunday.

This Easter, we celebrate the victorious resurrection of Jesus Christ, through whom we are redeemed and gifted with eternal life. Romans 6:4 reminds us: "We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life." May we hold firm to the hope and promise found in His sacrifice, rejoicing in the boundless love He has so generously shown us.

As Scripture declares: "If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." (Romans 10:9) If you haven't yet placed your trust in Jesus as your Savior, don't wait—come to Him today.

My wife, Angie, and I extend our warmest wishes to you and your loved ones for a blessed Easter, filled with peace, grace, and the everlasting joy of salvation.
